ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1997 • GENERAL SESSION
DR. ALFREDO SCHIFINI

Dr. Alfredo Schifini assists schools across the nation in developing comprehensive instructional programs for second language learners. Dr. Schifini is currently Professor of Education at California State University, Los Angeles, where his research interest includes literacy development in bilingual and multilingual settings, and the integration of language and content area instruction.

Gary Soto, born and raised in Fresno, California, is the author of nine poetry collections for adults, most notably "New and Selected Poems". He is also the author of a variety of prose and children's books such as Too Many Tamales, Chato's Kitchen and Snap Shots from the Wedding. He is currently working on an opera titled "Nerdlandia" with the Los Angeles Opera.
